

Cube4 Privacy Policy

Welcome. This privacy policy explains how we may use information that you provide to us when you access and use the Websites, services, content and applications of Cube4 ("Cube4").

Cube4, LLC and its affiliates and successors ("we" or "us") are the providers of Cube4.

A. Your Cube4 Information

1. Personal Information.

You do not need to register with us to access and use our Web site; however, when you contact us, we collect information that you provide to us about yourself. This information may include (a) your name, email address and other information, (b) your responses to our offerings, and (c) customer service information.

2. Technical Information

We may receive or collect certain technical information when you use our services, which does not identify you personally. This may include your manner of connecting to the Internet, the name of your Internet service provider or wireless carrier, and your Internet protocol (IP) address.

3. You Consent to our Collection of Information

By using Cube4, or when you contact us, you grant us consent to use your information as described in this policy.

B. How We Use Cube4 Information

We use information about you to operate and improve the features, offerings and content we present to you; to personalize content; to fulfill your requests for products, programs, and services; to conduct research about your use of our products; to respond to your requests and customer support questions; and to keep you informed about our services.

Except as we provide above, your information will not be shared with any other third parties for marketing purposes unless it is necessary to fulfill a transaction you have requested, or in other circumstances in which you have given your consent

The contents of your online communications, as well as other information about you as a user, may be accessed and disclosed in response: to governmental requests or legal process (for example, a court order, search warrant or subpoena), in other circumstances in which we have a good faith belief that a crime has been or is being committed by a user, that an emergency exists that poses a threat to the safety of you or another person, when necessary either to protect our property, or for us to render the service you have requested.

C. Third Party Agents

We may use agents and contractors to help operate Cube4, process payments, provide customer services and to help us analyze the performance of our services. Our agents and contractors must agree to limit the use of such information for these purposes.

D. Third Party Sites

This privacy policy only applies to our information practices on Cube4. Your use of other Web sites, even if they are linked from Cube4, are subject to the privacy policies of those Web sites. We are not responsible for their information practices or the information practices of any other user on the service.

E. Change of Ownership

In the event that our ownership was to change as a result of a merger or acquisition by another company, your information may be transferred. We will provide you notice prior to any such transfer of your information.

F. Your Information Choices

Any e-mails that you receive that contain marketing promotions will provide an option to remove your name from future mailings; provided, however, you understand and agree that this exclusion does not apply to notices we provide you about your Cube4 services or information about your transactions on the service.

G. Cookies, Advertising Networks

We may place "cookies" on your Web browser. Cookies are small pieces of information or text files that a website sends to your computer for record-keeping purposes, which information is stored in a file on your computer's hard drive. Cookies make Web-surfing and browsing easier for you by saving your preferences so that we can use the saved information to facilitate and improve your use of Cube4. Please note that you will not be able to access and use all of Cube4's features if you delete or refuse to accept cookies. For example, without cookies, you will not be able to set certain personalized preferences, and/or you may have difficulty completing transactions on Cube4. We do not use advertising networks on Cube4.

H. Security

We make available a secure page for entering sensitive information, protected by industry-standard SSL encryption technology. This technology encrypts your information prior to transmitting it over the Internet.

We maintain the confidential information you provide us in a secure database. Please keep in mind that while we have established safeguards to help prevent unauthorized access to or misuse of you Cube4 information, we cannot guarantee that your personally identifiable information will never be disclosed in a manner inconsistent with this Privacy Policy (for example, in the event of unauthorized acts by third parties that violate applicable law or our policies).

I. Our Services are not intended for Minors

Cube4 is intended for adults only, and we do not knowingly collect information from minors.
